

CLC SEALS

You are qualified to use the following seal on your Website and in your marketing materials.

Please note that we provide certified seals to you after completion of your course. This does not mean you are officially certified. You will be officially certified when your balance has been paid in full at which time you will receive your official WCI certificate in the mail.

You may not use these seals for proof of completion of the course for any reason; especially for credentialing body application.

If you default on your payments your course becomes null and void and the seals may no longer be used. If you continue to use the seals in the event of default you will be reported by WCI to the industry credentialing bodies for violation of ethics.

Posting of seals on the web is monitored on an ongoing basis.

Enjoy showcasing your seals!
